this book focuses on the end of four centuries of ottoman rule in bosnia and herzegovina in the 1870s after an introduction to the region and the political zeitgeist of the late 1860s and early 1870s it examines in detail the dramatic years beginning in the summer of 1875 when the outbreak of violent unrest in the eastern herzegovinan region bordering montenegro led to a massive refugee catastrophe the study traces the surprising further political and social dynamics to the summer and fall of 1878 when a habsburg army finally invaded the bosnian vilayet and took control of the province but only after months of fighting against massive local resistance throughout the province this book cannot be viewed in isolation from larger political dynamics which are also constantly present in this study as they unfolded however as this book attempts to show it is hardly possible to understand the often contradictory effects of these larger political dynamics without delving deeper into the complex local rationalities and constraints on the action of the actors involved in them the end of ottoman rule in bosnia will appeal to students teachers and researchers in late ottoman and bosnian history examines the dilemma of whether ancient near eastern images while providing unique aspects of the world views of the cultures from which the bible arose can be interpreted in a way that traceably relates them to the biblical text to avoid the danger of using images merely as illustrations for concepts found in the bible one first needs to behold the image with its own right to been seen the essays within this volume describe the methods developed by othmar keel for bringing imagery into a dialogue with texts from the ancient orient and their own interpretation including previously unpublished material from keel the contributions begin with an overview of the scholarly work of keel and the development of his aims and methods including a revision of an article dealing with semiology in the interpretation of art the book proceeds to address the research history of iconology in art history presenting the methodology of erwin panofsky and one of his influential predecessors charles clermont ganneau in contrast with keel s three methodological steps leading from iconographic analysis to iconology contributors then present two case studies of how keel s method can be applied to interpret egyptian and mesopotamian images allowing insights into the worldview of an ancient culture and the aim of iconology the book concludes with a report about how iconographic analysis and iconology is taught on university level in 1727 the year of george the first s death miss grace naylor of hurstmonceaux though she was beloved charming and beautiful died very mysteriously in her twenty first year in the immense and weird old castle of which she had been the heiress she was affirmed to have been starved by her former governess who lived alone with her but the fact was never proved her property passed to her first cousin francis hare son of her aunt bethaia who forthwith assumed the name of naylor the new owner of hurstmonceaux was the only child of the first marriage of that francis hare who through the influence first of the duke of marlborough by whose side then a chaplain he had ridden on the battle fields of blenheim and ramilies and afterwards of his family connections the pelhams and walpoles rose to become one of the richest and most popular pluralists of his age yet he had to be contented at last with the bishoprics of st asaph and chichester with each of which he held the deanery of st paul s the archbishopric of canterbury having twice just escaped him the bishop s eldest son francis was un fameux détail de notre famille as the grandfather of madame de maintenon said of his son he died after a life of the wildest dissipation without leaving any children by his wife carlotta alston who was his stepmother s sister so the property of hurstmonceaux went to his half brother robert son of the bishop s second marriage with mary margaret alston heiress of the vatche in buckinghamshire and of several other places besides sir robert walpole had been the godfather of robert hare naylor and presented him with a valuable sinecure office as a christening present and he further made the bishop urge the church as the profession in which father and godfather could best aid the boy s advancement accordingly robert took orders obtained a living and was made a canon of winchester while he was still very young his father had further secured his fortunes by marrying him to the heiress who lived nearest to his mother s property of the vatche and by the beautiful sarah selman daughter of the owner of chalfont st peter s and sister of mrs lefevre he had two sons francis and robert and an only daughter anna maria afterwards mrs bulkeley in the zenith of her youth and loveliness however sarah hare died very suddenly from eating ices when overheated at a ball and soon afterwards robert married a second wife the rich henrietta henckel who pulled down hurstmonceaux castle she did this because she was jealous of the sons of her predecessor and wished to build a large new house which she persuaded her husband to settle upon her own children who were numerous though only two daughters lived to any great age but she was justly punished for when robert hare died it was discovered that the great house which wyatt had built for mrs hare and which is now known as hurstmonceaux place was erected upon entailed land so that the house stripped of furniture and the property shorn of its most valuable farms passed to francis hare naylor son of miss selman mrs henckel hare lived on to a great age and when the burden of her years came on her she repented of her avarice and injustice and coming back to hurstmonceaux in childish senility would wander round and round the castle ruins in the early morning and late evening wringing her hands and saying who could have done such a wicked thing oh who could have done such a wicked thing as to pull down this beautiful old place then her daughters caroline and marianne walking beside her would say oh dear mamma it was you who did it it was you yourself who did it you know and she would despairingly resume oh no that is impossible it could not have
